作业

- Keep a diary for a couple of days. Type (only type – don't hand write) a couple of sentences for each day. The sort of thing that you've been saying in your sentences at the start of lessons.

Eg You could tell me what time you got up, what the weather was like, whether or not you went to work, what time you ate dinner (or even what you ate – just as long as it was sweet-and-sour fish)

So about 4 sentences in total. Keep it simple. Use what you already know. Do it early in the week if possible and email it to me.

Please - no scans of hand written work.

- Red team – prepare to say one of your sentences as usual
- Keep up with your character revision
