作业

This lesson we met a lot of old vocab in new contexts. To help you learn it, I've made a Quizlet set. This set doesn't have pinyin on it, so to learn the pronunciation you will have to make good use of the audio on the cards – pay attention to the tones to work out what they are. Go through it numerous times – noticing the way that the same characters are used and re-used in different contexts – and the way that different components of characters are used and re-used to create new meanings.

PLEASE NOTE Next week is half-term and I shall be away for 2 weeks for family reasons – so the next lesson will be on Wednesday 8th. See you all then – fresh and fighting fit, I hope 😊
