Word order. It's really useful to get a firm grasp on the basic word order of Chinese. If you can remember this structure, your Chinese will be so much more natural.

Time-when (eg: this morning, tomorrow, last year). This usually goes here – but can also go right at the start of the sentence.

Sentence structures.

subject	在 + place	verb	object
我	在家里	说	广东话。
他	在英文学校	上学。
你	在哪儿	出生?

作业

Read the notes carefully, practise your character-writing and translate the sentences below.

How would you say:

Next year we will study in China

In March I work in Japan.

Now he speaks French at home

They're watching a film at school this morning
(They / today morning / located school / watch film).

Put these sentence 'chunks' into the right order
