- Most of this lesson was taken up with doing a listening test. If you weren't here, you can find the recording here:
- I didn't set any homework, but I'd like you to put a bit more time in going through the HSK Quizlet. Try putting it on 'flashcard' mode, switch audio on and make sure that the 'prompt' is in Chinese (so that the response is in English). Shuffle the cards and then press play.
- The speaker will say a term in Chinese. Your job is to say (out loud, if you can) the meaning in English before it's provided. This is very good practice to speed up your recall.
